

Web Based Junior Digital Designer

Greater Manchester

First Internet is offering a young and talented digital designer the opportunity to work closely with our head of Digital Design over the summer holiday and gain some excellent experience.

You must have a background in digital media and a passion for learning, and be able to deliver design visuals for the websites and print work.

The ideal candidate will be capable of tackling a wide variety of web-based projects and have a excellent understand of Adobe Photoshop. You also will need to have great conceptual thinking and strong design skills to be able to produce day-to-day work, along with long-term projects.

Projects will include:

Helping with the design of new websites and development of online branding
Creating images to promote brands in an eye-catching manner

Helping with the redesign and refresh of our existing clients website on an on-going basis and other ad-hoc projects for web, emails for special promotions and tactical sales banners etc.

A successful candidate must create work of an excellent standard.

Key Requirements:

- Creativity goes without saying
- An interest in website design and a real passion to learn more about the industry Flexible to constant changes.
- The ability to meet deadlines
- Excellent communication skills a must
- Attention to detail
- Proficiency in Photoshop and Illustrator Basic knowledge of basic
- HTML, Flash, CSS and WordPress are all bonuses.

If the above position is for you, please send your CV to Elizabeth along with examples of your work.

eeaglesimbeye@firstinternet.co.uk